(c) whether the fee charged from CGHS beneficiaries is re-imbursed to them; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI A. RAJA)

(a): Yes, Sir. Peritoneal Dialysis is an established form of treatment of kidney failure patients. One of the types of peritoneal dialysis is continuous Ambulatory Peritoneal Dialysis wherein the patient can conduct the dialysis at home without need for any equipment.

(b)&(c) Peritoneal Dialysis is done in many government and private hospitals in Delhi like Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital, Lok Nayak Jai Prakash Hospital, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Batra Hospital, Apollo Hospital, Moolchand Khairati Ram Hospital Anand Hospital, Kailash Medical & Research Centre, G.M. Modi Hospital & Research Centre, Jaipur Golden Hospital, Dharamshila Cancer Hospital, etc. Outside Delhi also it isdone in many hospitals like Post Graduate Insitute of Medical Science and Research, Chandigarh, Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Science and Research, Lucknow, Christian Medical College, Vellore and Apollo Hospital, Chennai, etc. In Central Government hospitals such treatment is available free of cost. The treatment undertaken by CGHS beneficiaries in recognised Private Hospitals is reimbursible as per CGHS approved rates which is Rs. 1000/- including the medicines and sundries.

(d) Does not arise.
